Product Description

It's obvious when home town pride rises to the surface and Cedros Coastal rods are a prime example. Crafted to excel in demanding Southern California fisheries where rod actions undergo rigorous scrutiny, Cedros Coastal rods are an exciting addition to any inshore environment. Lightweight one-piece graphite composite blanks produce astonishing power from their small diameter. Alps stainless steel guide frames with Zirconium inserts deliver rugged durability. Custom ALPS machined aluminum reel seats provide total security. Casting models feature spit grip handles to maximize agility. Quickly, Cedros Coastal rods are becoming favorites of Okuma staff, as their combination of refined action, inherent power and superior handling characteristics are one we gravitate to for an ever-increasing range of applications.
